5.1.3: - Capacity development and skills enhancement

Soft Skills:

In today's dynamic and competitive work environment, having technical expertise alone is not enough for career advancement. Soft skills, also known as interpersonal or people skills, are essential for effective communication, collaboration, and overall success in the workplace. Recognizing the importance of these skills, Gangadhar Meher University is placing greater emphasis on Soft Skills Enhancement Programs to equip students with a well-rounded skill set. The university focuses on several key areas, including:

- Effective Communication Skills: Enhancing students' ability to communicate clearly and concisely.
- Team Collaboration: Fostering a collaborative and inclusive work culture to strengthen teamwork and cooperation.
- Leadership and Emotional Intelligence: Developing leadership qualities and decision-making skills, along with emotional intelligence.
- Time Management and Prioritization: Improving organizational skills and teaching students how to prioritize tasks effectively to maximize productivity.
- Networking and Relationship Building: Enhancing students' networking abilities both within and outside the organization, and helping them build and maintain positive professional relationships.

To support these initiatives, Gangadhar Meher University has collaborated with organizations such as IIM Sambalpur, IIM Bangalore, IIM Kolkata, NIT Rourkela, DHH Sambalpur, IBS Kolkata, Xavier Jamshedpur, IBM Bangalore, Nandi Foundation in Hyderabad, and HDFC Bank's Sambalpur branch. These partnerships have provided students with training in areas like Digital Electronics, Medical Lab Technology, Computer Accountancy and Tally, Animation and Gaming, Retail and Hospitality, Heritage and Eco-tourism, Digital Marketing, Employability, Entrepreneurship, Interpersonal Relations, Communication, Corporate Culture, Presentation, Time Management, Leadership, and developing future skills.

In addition to these collaborations, various university departments also organize their own programs. Students are engaged in skill-building exercises, role-playing scenarios, and real-world simulations to prepare them for the demands of the professional world. Photographs and evidence of some of these events are provided below to showcase the university's commitment to these initiatives.

About the program:-

- The Pathmakers programme aims at developing leadership among young people through volunteerism. This is a long youth development programme meant for college students aged between 18 and 25.
- The intent is to make young people experience that bringing change (irrespective of the scale) is possible. In this programme students are mobilized from nearby colleges and meet periodically.
- The volunteer their time and skills and go through a journey from "Isolation to Participation" by using methodologies like residential workshops, lifeskills trainings, issue based discussions, trekking, field visits and outstation exposure.

LEARNINGS OF THE PARTICIPANTS:-

I can analyze how to think critically and solve the problems of different heralds and situation and the PRA session was so interesting where I could learn to use different tools from limited resources and areas to accommodate the experiences.
-Prabhasini Singh- G.M University

I thought of the first day where I couldn't able to interact with the participants though gradually I got familiar with the participants and they also interacted with me after the lifeline session I could open up with all and felt safe to share my thoughts.
-Rasmita Subita- V.S.S College

Objective:-

- To develop leadership of young people to become an active citizen and experience comfort zone to uncomfortable zone.
- To create an alternative and experiential learning process for the students to broaden their understanding of socio-economic issues and hones their skills to initiate positive actions.

OUTCOMES OF THE CAMP:-

We have organised 4 day residential camp where we outreached 33 participants from 6 colleges and university. Resource person Byasadev sir for PRA and Om prakash sir lecturer from bargarh for youth career development joined us to facilitate the session which make the students more excited and they also executed through their learning and sharing of experiences.
