Description about the event (200-300 words) and its Significance/Scope (100-200 words)	Prof. Srimat Sahu Memorial Lecture- 4 conducted by School of English, G. M. University, Sambalpur at LG-1 started with lighting of the lamp followed by the university anthem. The proceedings initiated with a welcome address by Dr. Anjali Tripathy, Head, School of English and it was followed by the inaugural address by the honourable Vice Chancellor Prof. N. Nagaraju. It was followed by the introduction of the Speaker by Dr. P. Muralidhar Sharma. The speaker dealt elaborately on the "Literary and Cultural Imagination of the Eastern Himalayas" which is still a less explored field in literary studies and demands attention in academia. The lecture was followed by an interactive session in which the invitees and students actively participated. Scope: Addressed specifically to young research scholars and students of the School of English, the lecture provided them the much-needed knowledge about the literature of North East India. Rooted in rich oral traditions and shaped by diverse cultural influences, it represents a vibrant tapestry of narratives, myths, and voices. Against the backdrop of socio-political complexities, writers from the region grapple with issues of identity, conflict, and resilience, using their craft to articulate the hopes and struggles of their communities. This scholarly lecture delved into the multifaceted world of North East Indian literature, and unraveled its layers of meaning and significance to celebrate its enduring cultural legacy.
