The existing laws that regulate creche facilities at the workplace, the Code on Social Security, 2020 under the New Labour Codes also contains creche-related provisions. As per the said Code, the employers may avail common creche facility provided by either the Central Government, State Government or municipality or private entity or NGO, or any other organisation or group of establishments. Further, the draft Central Rules framed under the said Code states that the creche facility shall be located within the establishment or at an appropriate distance from the establishment such that it is easily accessible to the women employees including a woman employee working from home; Keeping up to these legal provisions and the requirement of women employees of the Gangadhar Meher University, the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor has taken a noble step towards the establishment of a creche for the kids from in the age group of 06 months to 06 years in the University campus. The Vice Chancellor has been kind enough to sanction an amount of 40,000/- (Forth Thousand rupees) initially towards the opening of the creche in the Utility Centre temporarily. Dr.Sasmita Rani Shasini, Assistant Professor, School of History and Puspalektram, Assistant Professor, School of Psychology have been appointed as the Officers in Charge of the Creche and perform the overall supervision. The G. M. University Creche named "UINMANA" was inaugurated on 30th January, 2024 by the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor Prof. N. Naguraju with the presence of all the staffs of the University.	1	University/Institute	Address of the University

Professor Dr. Banita Mahanandia, Assistant Professor Dr. Subhankari Pati and Assistant Professor Singh Subhalaxmi Baidhar with PG and UG students. From different departments of Gangadhar Meher University to Hunkarpali village we traveled by bus. A total number of 120 students participated in this programme. It took one hour to reach that village. The Sarpanch Sukanta Sahu, Executive officer Natabar Nayak, Zilla Parishad member Utpala Barua, and Members of Mahila Mission, all are present here to welcome the students and faculties to their village. At first, the breakfast was taken. Then the formal session was begun by the welcome speech of Honourable Prof. Gyanaranjan Swain. After that Post graduate students organized themselves into two groups. One group represented the aspect related to Women's Empowerment and another group represented drama related to this topic. Students also show a rally in the village by using various slogans. Through interaction, our students aware the people about the government policies and programmes. In the drama, students show the domestic violence, gender discrimination, dowry system against women. They entertained the people of that village by singing songs for them and doing many comic activities. At last Miss Singh Subhalaxmi Baidhar had given the vote of thanks to all and finished the formal session. At the finish of the session, everyone from the faculties along with the villagers together had taken lunch. The extension programme was ended at 3 pm by reaching Gangadhar University, Sambalpur.

IQAC, G.M. University, Sambalpur, Odisha has organized a workshop on "Awareness and Implementation of POCCSO Act in India on 30th November, 2023 at 11.00 am in L. G-1. The honorable guests were welcome and felicitated by students of G. M. University, Sambalpur. The dignitaries present were Deputy registrar Dr. Uma Charan Pati, Director IQAC Prof.Gyana Ranjan Swain, Criteria -VII convenor and Co-convenor Dr. Himansu Sekhar Samal, Dr. Namita Sarangi respectively, Guest Speaker, Mr. Byomkesh Panigrahi, Mrs. Bani Mohapatra. Beside these faculties and students of different department were present in the meeting.

Mr. Byomkesh Panigrahi highlighted on the legal aspect of the POCCSO act. He talked about different categories of sexual offence punishable under POCCSO Act:

- Sexual assault
- Sexual harassment
- Using child for pornography

He further stressed on the punishment given to offender under categories. He cited many real-life events of the victims and stressed how society needs to change their outlook. He also discussed different rules comes under IPC.

Mrs. Bani Mohapatra emphasized on the psychological aspect of the POCCSO Act. She focused on the stigma associated with our society not to report the real problem and discuss the issues. Most of the cases comes from within the family specially where relatives or close ones are involved. She praised the institution for conducting such workshop because previously it was never discussed in an open platform. She further talked about how the government of India has initiated and introduced the good touch and bad touch which has been in the curriculum of small children. She also mentioned how in the earlier days the term "Rape" was not discussed in the public domain. Finally, the meeting ended with the vote of thanks given by Singh Subhalaxmi Bairdhar.

Description about the event (200-300 words) and its Significance/Scope (100-200 words)	Transgender people commonly encounter discrimination in a variety of spheres of life. They have experienced discriminationor been denied opportunities because of their genderidentity. Transgender people are more likely to encounter violence and verbal, physical, andsexual harassment. Because of societal discrimination and stigma, they are more prone toexperience sadness, anxiety, and suicidal thoughts. In this regard, the Workshop held on 15th and 16th December, 2023 tried towards bringing a change in social perception towards the Transgender Community. The Workshop was inaugurated by our Honourable Vice Chancellor Prof. N. Nagaraju joined by esteemed PGC, Prof. Susantakumard Das, Prof. Gyanaranjan Swain, Director, IQAC, Smt. Jugaleswari Dash, Registrar, Dr. UmacharanPati, Deputy Registrar, faculties, students and research scholars of different disciplines. Pratap Kumar Sahoo, Ex-Chairperson, SSEPD & SLRCTC, Sri Thabira Kumar Mahananda, DSSO, Sambalpur graced the occasion as invited speakers. Mr. Pratap Kumar Sahoo as social activist narrated his experiences and struggles in securing the rights of transgenders as citizens of India. He also reflected upon the various court cases involving transgenders, the abuse and sufferings and their everyday lives. Sri Thabira Kumar Mahananda, DSSO of Sambalpur reflected upon the Govt. policies, programmes and schemes for the welfare of the community. PritiKinnar, Tanya Kinnar and Riya Kinnar joined us as representatives of transgender community of Sambalpur and narrated their sufferings, isolation and trauma as well as their everyday experiences. On the second day of the Workshop i.e. 16th December, 2023, our Honourable Vice Chancellor along with the invited speakers joined us in an outreach programme in the Gopalpati village of Sambalpur. The day begun with a rally by our student volunteers with different slogans to change our social behavior towards transgenders. A group of student volunteers performed a play on the theme dwelling upon the theme of equal opportunity and social acceptance of the transgenders in our society. At the end the villagers shared their views on how the transgenders are actually suffering in the society because of the societal pressure and agreed upon the need for change. The student play group received accolades from the community members for their performance and the entire team was appreciated for undertaking such a lively issue into academic domain.
